

Eastern New York Chapter/ Association of College and Research Libraries presents

Spring Conference 2006

“Data is the answer. What is the question?”

May 14-15, 2006
Hamilton College

Clinton, New York

SUNDAY, MAY 14

6:00 Dinner at Backus House, Hamilton College Campus

MONDAY, MAY 15

8:30-9:15 Registration and Refreshments, McEwen Hall Lobby

9:15-9:45 Welcoming Remarks, Kirner-Johnson Auditorium

Mary Anne Waltz, ENY/ACRL President
Deborah Bernard, ENY/ACRL Vice President & Program Chair
Dr. Joan Stewart, President, Hamilton College

9:45-10:45 Keynote Presentation “Balancing Evidence-Based Librarianship and Protecting Patron Privacy through the Bibliomining Process”, Kirner-Johnson Auditorium

Speaker: Scott Nicholson, Assistant Professor, School of Information Studies, Syracuse University

10:45-11:00 Break, outside Kirner-Johnson Auditorium

11:00-12:00 Discussion groups on collecting and using data to enhance services

Circulation and ILL, Kirner-Johnson 107, led by Brenda Hazard

LibQual, Kirner-Johnson 109, led by Gregg Sapp

Web Statistics, Kirner-Johnson Auditorium, led by Andy Ashton

Reference Statistics, Schambach 108, led by Mary Mullin

12:00-1:00 Lunch and Business Meeting, McEwen Dining Hall

1:00-2:00 Presentation, 'Freedom of Information', Kirner-Johnson Auditorium

Speaker: Bob Freeman, Executive Director, New York State Committee on Open Government

2:00-2:15 Break, outside Kirner-Johnson Auditorium

2:15-3:00 "Awash in Numbers: New directions for managing electronic resources and their usage statistics", Kirner-Johnson Auditorium

Speaker: Nancy Turner, Head, Digital & Electronic Resource Management Services, Syracuse University Library

3:00-4:00 Poster Sessions, McEwen Hall Lobby
Tour of Burke Library/Information Commons